Proceedings of the Chief Commissioner of Coorg, (Judicial),—dated 10th May 1882.

READ—

Letter No. 262, dated the 12th March 1882, from the Judicial Commissioner of Coorg, submitting report on the administration of Civil Justice in the Province of Coorg for the year 1881.

No. 272—81, DATED BANGALORE, 10TH MAY 1882.

REVIEW BY THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER.—On the introduction into the Province of the Coorg Courts' Regulation II of 1881 during the latter part of the year under review, the number of civil tribunals was reduced from 18 to 17 by the abolition of the civil court of the 1st Superintendent who as 1st Assistant Commissioner and District Magistrate was relieved of all civil work.

2. The number of suits instituted was 2,839 against 2,078 or 761 more than in 1880. With 33 pending suits there were in all 2,872 suits for disposal and of these 2,739 were disposed of and 139 were pending. Of the pending suits 11 were over 2 months old and one over 4 months. The latter was pending in the Commissioner's Court, but no explanation has been offered as to why the case was pending so long.

3. The most marked increase observable was in suits founded on contract in writing. The increase in these suits over the number of the previous year was 483 and it is accounted for by the short coffee crop and the consequent failure on the part of native planters to fulfil their engagements with traders who had advanced money on the crop. The Courts of the Subedars and Parpattegars alone received for disposal during the year 2,655 suits or 570 and 222 respectively more than in the previous year. The number of suits instituted in the 2nd Assistant Commissioner's Court rose from 22 to 80. This was as expected and the increase would have been greater if the civil powers had been withdrawn from the 1st Assistant Commissioner earlier than in November 1881.

4. A heavy suit against a coffee planter valued at Rs. 4,57,000 raised the aggregate and average value of suits from Rs. 3,70,595 to Rs. 7,98,078 and 178 to 281. If it were not for this heavy case the aggregate and average value would have been far less than what they were in the previous year notwithstanding the considerable increase in the number of suits during the year under review.

5. Of the 2,739 suits decided 2,158 were uncontested and only 575 were contested. Of the latter in 447 cases judgment was given for plaintiff and in 128 for defendant. Of the former 978 as compared with 732 cases were decreed exparte. The report does not state whether any of these cases were re-admitted or how many applications were received for re-admission. It is hoped that in each of these cases there had been good proof of service. The duration of contested suits averaged 26 against 29 days in the previous year and that of uncontested suits was 18 days the same as in 1880. It is a noteworthy fact that although there was a considerable increase of work in the Courts of the 2nd Assistant Commissioner, Subedars and Parpattegars, the average duration during the year in those courts contrasts very favorably with that of the previous year. The duration in the disposal of both contested and uncontested suits in the Commissioner's and 1st Assistant Commissioner's Courts was high being 48 and 43 for contested and 23 and 49 for uncontested suits, and the high duration of the latter is accounted for by the death of the defendant in one suit and by time being allowed for the substitution of his representative who was in Scotland.

6. Although 575 appealable cases were disposed of during the year as against 360 in 1880, only 108 appeals were filed and with the 2 pending from the previous year there were in all 110 appeals for disposal. Of these 100 were disposed of during the year leaving 10 pending. Of the contested appeals the decrees of the lower courts were confirmed in 41, modified in 24, reversed in 15 and remanded in 14. The average duration of appeals was 21 days, but in the Court of the Commissioner the same high duration as was noticed in the disposal of suits was observable in the disposal of appeals also. This is accounted for by some cases having been remanded for further enquiry. The percentage of cases reversed, modified or confirmed is not shown and this should have been done to show the result of appeals.

7. The work in the Judicial Commissioner's Court during the year was very light, as there were only 14 second appeals and no regular appeals as against 6 regular appeals and 22 second appeals in 1880, but on the other hand the work of the lower courts increased considerably as is evidenced by the increase in the number of processes and the amount of fees collected. The number of processes issued were 16,168 and Rs. 8,367 were collected as fees. Of this amount the civil judicial establishment cost Rs. 4,370 leaving a net profit of Rs. 3,996 against Rs. 3,137 in 1880.

The administration of Civil Justice has been satisfactory, so far as can be judged from the report.

H. WYLIE, MAJOR,
Secretary.

To—The Judicial Commissioner of Coorg.
The Commissioner of Coorg.

ANNUAL REPORT

ON THE

ADMINISTRATION OF CIVIL JUSTICE

IN THE

PROVINCE OF COORG,

for the year 1881,

BY

J. D. SANDFORD, Esq., M. A., B. C. S., Barrister-at-Law,

Judicial Commissioner of Coorg.

I have the honor to submit for the information of the Chief Commissioner, the following Report on the administration of Civil Justice in the Province of Coorg for the year 1881, together with the Statistical Returns Nos. 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 prescribed by the Government of India.

2. Acts and Regulations extended.—Act XXX of 1852, an Act for the Naturalization of Aliens, was extended, and Regulation II of 1881 relating to Coorg Courts was enacted for the Province.

3. Tribunals.—The number of Courts was reduced to 17 on the introduction of the Coorg Courts Regulation II of 1881 on 12th November 1881 :—

1	The Court of the District Judge.
1	The Court of the Assistant Commissioner.
8	The Courts of the Subedars.
7	The Courts of the Parpattegars.

Civil powers were withdrawn from the 1st Assistant Commissioner on his appointment as District Magistrate of Coorg.

4. Institution of Suits.—There has been an increase of 761 suits over the number instituted in the previous year :—

Instituted in	1881	..	2,839 suits.
Do	1880	..	2,078 „
		Increase	761 suits.

The Commissioner reports that the above increase is attributable " chiefly to the failure on the part of native coffee planters to fulfil their engagements consequent on a very short coffee crop, and to the desire of traders who had advanced money on the crop to realize their outstandings before others who had also claims."

5. Description of Suits—The subjoined table shows the classes of suits instituted in the year under review:—

	1880.	1881.
Contract in writing	1,387	1,870
Contract not in writing	120	191
On account stated	274	342
Money had and received	55	86
Goods sold	7	7
Wages, work and materials	6	21
Breach of contract not mentioned above	2	11
Rent not falling under the Rent Law	...	2
Movable property or value thereof	86	122
Damages	48	77
Suits for immovable property	13	21
Suits to declare and establish rights to real property including pre-emption, foreclosure, &c.	31	46
Suits to declare and establish personal rights	4	5
Suits to set aside judgments, contracts or obligation on the ground of fraud ..	2	2
Suits for enforcement of matrimonial rights	2	1
Suits for partition	1	2
Suits relating to religion and caste	13	10
Other suits not falling under any of the previous heads	27	23

It will be noticed from the above statement that there has been a marked increase in suits founded on contracts in writing, contracts not in writing, on account stated, money had and received, movable property or value thereof and damages.

No suits were filed for declaratory decrees as against 4 in 1880.

6. The annexed table exhibits the number of suits filed in the several Courts :—

	1880.	1881.
Parpattegars	160	382
Subedars	1,703	2,273
2nd Assistant Commissioner	22	91
1st do do	183	80
Commissioner	10	13
Total.....	2,078	2,839

There has been a large increase in the Courts of the Parpattegars, Subedars and 2nd Assistant Commissioner, and a marked decrease in the Court of the 1st Assistant Commissioner.

7. Value of Suits.—There has been an increase in the valuation of suits, it being Rs. 7,98,078. The increase was owing to the institution of a suit for Rs. 4,57,000 against a coffee planter:—

	Rs.
Value of suits in 1881 ..	7,98,078
Do 1880 ..	3,70,595
Increase....	4,27,483

The average value of each suit was Rs. 281 as against Rs. 178 in 1880.

8. Disposal of Suits.—There were 2,872 suits for disposal including 33 suits which were pending at the end of the previous year.

9. The general result of trials as against the previous year was as follows :—

	1880.	1881.
Without trial	298	350
Without contest—
Compromised	66	65
Decreed on confession	612	759
Decreed exparte	732	978
Dismissed exparte	3	6
With contest—
Judgment for plaintiff	264	447
Do for defendant	96	128
On reference to arbitration	1	...
Total disposed of.....	2,072	2,733

The number of suits pending at the close of the year was 139 against 33 at the end of the previous year. The largest number pending in the Courts of the Subedars and 2nd Assistant Commissioner were 116 and 16 respectively. The date of the oldest case pending was 23rd August 1881 in the Commissioner's Court and only 11 had been pending for a period over 2 months.

No suits were referred to arbitration during the year.

10. Pauper Suit.—One pauper suit was filed against 4 in the previous year.

11. Average Duration of Suits.—The average duration of uncontested suits was the same as in 1880; but that of contested suits was 26 against 29 in the previous year. The average duration in contested and uncontested suits was high in the Courts of the Commissioner and 1st Assistant Commissioner. The reason assigned by the Commissioner for the high duration in the disposal of uncontested cases is the death of the defendant in one suit and the time allowed for the necessary substitution of his representative who was in Scotland.

12. Miscellaneous Cases.—There were 370 miscellaneous cases for disposal. Of these 97 were disposed of without trial, 137 without contest, 126 with contest and 10 cases were pending at the close of the year.

The average duration for contested and uncontested cases was 13 and 14 days respectively.

13. Appeals.—There were 575 appealable cases disposed of against 360 in the previous year. 108 appeals were filed :—

In the Commissioner's Court	28
In the 1st Assistant Commissioner's Court ..	56
In the 2nd Assistant Commissioner's Court ..	24

14. Disposal of Appeals.—There were 110 appeals for disposal including 2 pending from the previous year.

The appeals were disposed of in the following manner :—

Appeals summarily rejected	2
Dismissed for default or otherwise not prosecuted	2
Heard Exparte—
Confirmed	1
Reversed	1
Contested—
Confirmed	41
Modified	24
Reversed	15
Remanded	14

There were 10 appeals pending. The date of the oldest appeal pending was 3rd December 1881.

15. Average Duration of Appeals.—The average duration was 21 days, the same as last year.

The average duration of 42 days in the Commissioner's Court was rather high. It has been explained that it was due to 3 cases being remanded for further enquiry. One case had to be twice remanded for evidence as to disputed identity of one of the parties on the plea of res-judicata.

16. Miscellaneous Appeals.—There were 14 miscellaneous appeals for disposal, 2 were summarily rejected, 3 dismissed for default, &c. and the rest were heard exparte and decided. There were no contested appeals. The average duration of 11 days was favorable.

17. Execution of Decrees.—The total number of applications filed was 2,183. Of these 1,727 were before the Subedars' Courts. They were disposed of as exhibited below.—

By transfer	.. ..	206
Satisfaction obtained in full	..	725
Satisfaction obtained in part.	..	251
Wholly infructuous	..	862

139 applications were pending at the close of the year.

The amount realized both with and without the issue of processes was rupees 79,300—8—9.

In 25 cases the judgment-debtors were imprisoned in the Civil Jail for periods varying from 1 to 104 days giving an average of 26 days for each prisoner.

In 174 applications movable property was sold, and immovable property in 17 cases.

18. Insolvency Applications.—There were 4 applications against 6 last year. In one case the application was granted, and the other three were rejected.

19. Processes—The annexed table exhibits the number of processes issued and the income realized as compared with the previous year:—

Year.	Number of Processes issued.	Fees collected.
1880	12,897	6,797	6	0
1881	16,168	8,367	6	0

The cost of the establishment was Rs. 4,370 in 1881 against Rs. 3,660 in the previous year, and there was a net profit of Rs. 3,996 against Rs. 3,137 in the previous year.

The profits realized in the process department may be partly utilized in strengthening the Courts and their establishments as already recommended in a separate communication.

20. Judicial Commissioner as High Court.—One regular appeal which was pending at the close of the previous year was decided. No regular appeal was filed during the year.

21. Second Appeals.—There were 14 second appeals for disposal including 3 cases pending at the end of the year; one was dismissed for default, in 5 the decisions of the lower Court were confirmed on contest, 3 were remanded, and 5 were pending.

22. Miscellaneous Appeals.—There was one miscellaneous second appeal filed on the 1st November 1881.

23. Referred Cases.—One case was referred for the opinion of the Judicial Commissioner under Section 617 of the Code of Civil Procedure against 3 in the previous year.

24. General Remarks.—Rules were framed under Section 19 of the Coorg Courts' Regulation 1881 for regulating the appointment, suspension, removal and punishment of the ministerial officers in the Civil Courts of Coorg.

The Superintendent of Coorg reports that the records in all the cases disposed of up to the end of 1880 have been sorted and deposited in the Central Record Room, and that security has been furnished by Nazirs, Gumastas and by nearly all the Process peons.

BANGALORE,
17th March 1882.

J. D. SANDFORD,
Judicial Commissioner.
